SUMMARY

Dedicated B.Tech (IT) student at Sharda University with a passion for web development and programming. Proficient in HTML, CSS, JavaScript, and PHP, with hands-on experience in crafting dynamic and responsive websites. Sound knowledge of SQL for database management.

Currently expanding skill set through Java programming and actively learning Data Structures and Algorithms, evidenced by regular problem-solving on LeetCode. Maintaining an impressive CGPA of 8.3, reflecting commitment to academic excellence.

Holder of a web development certification from Udemy, demonstrating practical skills and a proactive approach to learning. Eager to contribute to innovative projects and stay at the forefront of technology. Committed to continuous improvement, I strive to deliver high-quality work and stay competitive in the dynamic field of IT.
